interviewee: texas as a state is the largest producer of beef in the united states many folks in my group were in attendance and thought you were a fireball we need to bring our schools and colleges out of the liberal stone age, and make them institutions of learning and innovation instead of indoctrination