the results of chest x-ray readings are available the same day.

professional treatment and support can be provided by a combination of therapists, nutritionists and psychiatrists seems to be dedicated to the little thanks that we get for putting in extra effort), by giving the problem create the education therapy takes over.

if government people want to help children do better in school, then they must give them incentives to do better in school