the commission has been investigating google since 2010 over complaints that it gives undue preference to its own services in search results and negotiates unfair advertising deals.

the south-african herb devil's claw is believed to aid with pain as well as redness.

these chemicals are used in fast food wrappers, pizza boxes, microwave popcorn bags, in baked goods packaging, hamburger clamshells, and disposable paper plates.

some visitors to bohol have cancelled reservations, but damage to tourism is likely to be short-lived.

or other alternatives to litigation, or even picking the courts or in which disputes.