i take them religiously i have never run out early, take them by mouth at the same time every day, i don't abuse them or sell them, i use them the way they are supposed to be used this is the reality of the vivisection industry and of the lives that are wrecked and ended by companies like hls